

White Collar Crimes

Defending You Against Serious Criminal Charges

A federal charge involving a white collar crime is a complex matter. These are sophisticated cases that we believe deserve sophisticated and aggressive cutting-edge representation.

At Hertz Schram, our attorneys have the experience, the knowledge and the creativity to design legal strategies dedicated to getting our clients through these cases. Each of our attorneys has significant criminal defense experience and experience working as assistant United States attorneys, prosecuting attorneys and as an assistant attorney general.

Whether you or a loved one is under investigation, has been subpoenaed for a federal grand jury hearing or has been arrested on suspicion of a white collar crime, our team has the experience and skill necessary to defend you against these serious and intricate criminal charges.
