

Representing Licensed Healthcare Professionals against Criminal Charges

When faced with criminal charges, licensed professionals also face an additional challenge: protecting their careers. A criminal conviction can be cause to have a professional license revoked or suspended. In addition to protecting you against the charge itself, the lawyers of Hertz Schram are able to stand up for you and represent you in front of any type of administrative tribunal to ensure that your career is not destroyed by criminal allegations.

Protecting all Types of Licensed Professionals

Since our establishment in 1979, Hertz Schram has taken great care to protect all types of licensed professionals against the consequences of a criminal charge. We have represented doctors, nurses, pharmacists and other licensed medical professionals. Our team represents people in Detroit and throughout Michigan in legal matters involving:

- Health care fraud defense (overuse, overcharging, excessive prescribing and other allegations)
- Health care licensing and disciplinary allegations and proceedings (prescription abuse and fraud, violations of the Public Health Code, excessive billing, upcoding, overbilling, departicipation, reparticipation, Medicare-Medicaid exclusion and reinstatement, Drug Enforcement Administration deregistration and reregistration litigation, National Practitioner Data Bank responses and exceptions)

Hertz Schram is a Bold, Forward-Thinking and Uncommonly Creative Law Firm

Not only do we have the ingenuity and skill to get you through such challenging times, but we also have the resources to provide you with uncompromising professional license defense. We know what is at stake if you lose your professional license. Our firm will do what is legally necessary to protect your career.

If your medical license, nursing license, dentistry license, pharmacy license or any other professional license is in jeopardy, we can help. We have the experience to build a complete and thorough defense and to stand strong in any type of administrative proceeding, from state boards to health care boards. You can be assured that your career is in good hands when you turn to us to protect it.
